

Please read carefully, and indicate selections clearly:

1. Readings

- a. For the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation, there are several options for readings found in the lectionary (764-768). These readings may be used on any day except at Saturday Evening (if it fulfills the Sunday obligation) and Sunday Masses, the Sundays of Advent, Lent, Ash Wednesday, Holy Week, the Paschal Season, and Solemnities – when the readings of the day must be used.
b. During the Paschal Season, the first reading is always taken from the Acts of the Apostles. The second reading is taken from one of the Letters of the New Testament. During the Paschal Season, it is not appropriate to have an Old Testament reading.
c. Outside the Paschal Season, it is most appropriate to have an Old Testament first reading, a New Testament Letter, and a Gospel reading.

Readings will be taken from the Lectionary cycle for the current day.

Reading will be taken from the current feast or solemnity (please specify):

1st reading Psalm 2nd reading Gospel

Readings will be taken from the Lectionary for Confirmation Masses (Lectionary #764-768).

Please refer to volume four of the Lectionary for specific verses and other details.

Please choose one from each of the following headings: For specific verse numbers, please see the Lectionary or the Confirmation ritual

Table with 4 columns: Old Testament, Psalm, New Testament, Gospel. Each column contains a list of biblical references with checkboxes for selection.
