

Reflections on Lay Ecclesial Ministry

Check the statements that could be used to describe you:

- I maintain a habit of daily prayer.
- I find myself enriched by Scripture study.
- The Liturgy is a part of my life and I cherish my participation in it.
- I have knowledge of Church doctrine, but I find myself wanting to know more about the teachings.
- I respect and appreciate the role of Tradition in our Church.
- I like the traditions and cultural faith practices of our Church.
- I am a fully initiated member of the Catholic Church.
- I regularly receive the Sacraments of the Church, especially Eucharist and Penance.
- I participate in my parish activities.
- I believe that I have the ability to lead and direct others in their service.
- I am living in a chaste relationship appropriate to my state in life (single celibate, or married.)
- I enjoy my friendships.
- My relationships with colleagues lead me to personal and professional growth.
- I would consider myself to be an emotionally mature person.
- I have the discipline needed to engage in regular study of academic and theological studies.
- I appreciate new ideas.
- I would say that I have the ability to think critically.
- I have healthy habits of managing stress in my life.
- I am a person who does not have a personal agenda that I would like to advance in the Church.
- I maintain a good working relationship with parish leaders and clergy.
- I have a sense of humor.