The readings from the weekday cycle generally are to be used even on days on which a Memorial or Optional Memorial of a Saint occurs. The exceptions to this rule are the Memorials or Optional Memorials which have “proper readings” (usually only the Gospel) assigned to them in the Lectionary for Mass and which must be used on those days. Substitutions from the Commons or Proper of Saints may be made for the other readings suggested for those Memorials or Optional Memorials. The Priest Celebrant, however, should not omit “too often or without sufficient cause the readings assigned for each day in the weekday Lectionary” (Introduction to the Lectionary for Mass, no. 83).
Notes for the Year of Grace 2020

2. Outside Advent, Christmas Time, Lent, and Easter Time, on Saturdays which have no commemoration having the rank of Obligatory Memorial or higher, a Mass in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary may be celebrated. The readings and prayers may be selected from the Collection of Masses of the Blessed Virgin Mary, reprinted in 2012 with approved adaptations to conform to The Roman Missal, Third Edition (2011)

3. Since December 8, 2019, is the Second Sunday of Advent, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is transferred to Monday, December 9, 2019. The obligation to attend Mass, however, does not transfer. The Optional Memorial of Saint Juan Diego Cuauhtlatoatzin, December 9, is omitted this year.

4. In a decree dated February 11, 2018, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments inscribed the Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church in the General Roman Calendar to be observed on the Monday after Pentecost, taking precedence over an obligatory Memorial that coincides with it. Thus, June 1, 2020 shall be observed as the Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church, and the Memorial of Saint Justin, Martyr, is omitted.

5. As noted in the table of Principal Celebrations, in the Dioceses of Salt Lake City, the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord (May 21, 2020) has been transferred to the following Sunday (May 24, 2020) and replaces the Seventh Sunday of Easter.

6. The Anniversary of the Dedication of a Parish Church is a proper solemnity for the parish. See Appendix II on page 22 for a listing of dedication dates.

7. The Anniversary of the Rededication of the Cathedral Church of the Madeleine, February 21, is celebrated as a solemnity in the cathedral church and as a feast throughout the diocese.

8. Ritual Masses – Ritual Masses are connected to the celebration of Sacraments or Sacramentals. They may not be celebrated on the Sundays of Advent, Lent, and Easter, on solemnities, on the days within the Octave of Easter, on All Souls Day (Commemoration of the Faithful Departed), on Ash Wednesday, and during Holy Week and furthermore due regard is to be had for the norms set out in the ritual books or in the Masses themselves (GIRM-General Instruction of the Roman Missal 372).

9. Items particular to the Diocese of Salt Lake City are printed in red.
   National & Diocesan Collections are printed in green
   US Holidays and National Days of Remembrance or Action are in blue.
Order of Celebrating Matrimony

- The Order of Celebrating Matrimony, English translation of the 2nd typical edition, for use in the dioceses of the United States (published 2016) is the ritual text to be used. No other English edition of the Order of Celebrating Matrimony may be used in the dioceses of the United States of America. [Decree of Publication, February 2, 2016]

- Whenever Marriage is celebrated within Mass, the Ritual Mass “The Celebration of Marriage” is used with sacred vestments of the color white or of a festive color. On those days listed in nos. 1 – 4 of the Table of Liturgical Days (see Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year, 59), however, the Mass of the day is used with its own readings, with inclusion of the Nuptial Blessing and, if appropriate, the proper formula for the final blessing.

- If, however, during Christmas and Ordinary Time, the parish community participates in a Sunday Mass during which Marriage is celebrated, the Mass of the Sunday is used.

- Nevertheless, since a Liturgy of the Word adapted for the celebration of Marriage has a great impact in the handing on of catechesis about the Sacrament itself and about the duties of the spouses, when the Mass “For the Celebration of Marriage” is not said, one of the readings may be taken from the texts provided for the celebration of Marriage (nos. 144-187) (The Order of Celebrating Matrimony, 34).

- If a Marriage is celebrated on a day having a penitential character, especially during Lent, the pastor is to counsel the spouses to take into account the special nature of that day. The celebration of marriage on Friday of the Passion of the Lord and Holy Saturday is to be avoided all together (The Order of Celebrating Matrimony, 32).

Order of Christian Funerals

- Funeral Masses—Funeral Masses are not permitted on solemnities that are holydays of obligation, Holy Thursday, the Easter Triduum, and the Sundays of Advent, Lent, and Easter (GIRM 380). In such cases where the Funeral Mass is not permitted the Funeral Liturgy outside of Mass may be used (see Order of Christian Funerals, 178).

- See Appendix I on page 19 for a table of principal liturgical celebrations throughout the liturgical year indicating when a Funeral Mass, Funeral Outside of Mass, Wedding Ritual Mass, or Wedding Outside of Mass in permitted.

It may be proclaimed (either read or chanted) using multiple readers. Lay persons are allowed to do any of the parts. Sacred Paschal Triduum
(Late afternoon April 9, 2020 – Evening Prayer, April 12, 2020)

Thursday – Sunday, April 9 – April 12: Ritual Masses are not permitted; a funeral Mass is not permitted, the sacraments are not celebrated except penance, anointing of the sick and sacrament of initiation within the Masses of Easter; Holy Communion may be brought to the sick during the Triduum except on Holy Saturday – on Holy Saturday Holy Communion may be given only as viaticum. Since the only Mass allowed on Holy Thursday is the Evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper, it might be beneficial to celebrate Morning Prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours at the regularly scheduled time for morning Mass.

09 Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper (Holy Thursday)
The Mass of the Lord’s Supper is not to begin before 4:00 pm. Lent ends before Evening Prayer is celebrated. The Easter triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper. Evening prayer on Holy Thursday is celebrated only by those participating in the evening Mass. The Mass of the Lord’s Supper is the principal Liturgy of the day and the only Mass to be celebrated.

10 Friday of the Passion of the Lord (Good Friday)
The Liturgy of the Hours, particularly Morning Prayer, is strongly encouraged to be celebrated with the community. The celebration of the Lord’s Passion, the principal celebration of this day, should take place about 3:00 pm. If pastoral need dictates, there may be another celebration later in the day, particularly if it is necessary to repeat in a different language.

11 The Easter Vigil (Holy Saturday)
The Liturgy of the Hours, particularly Morning Prayer, is strongly encouraged to be celebrated with the community. The Easter Vigil is not be scheduled before 8:30 pm. If there is a pastoral need to start earlier, please contact Msgr. Bircumshaw, Vicar General at the Diocese.

12 Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord
The fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost are celebrated in joyful exultation as one feast day, or better, as one “great Sunday.” The first eight days of the Easter Season make up the Octave of Easter and are celebrated as Solemnities of the Lord (CB. 371, 373). The Easter Sequence is to be sung on Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord (GIRM #64). On Easter Sunday, the tradition in the U.S. has been to replace the Creed with the Renewal of Baptismal Promises, followed by sprinkling with blessed water. The text may be found in the Roman Missal texts for the Easter Vigil.

Season of Easter
(April 12, 2020 – June 01, 2020)

Ritual Masses are not permitted; however, marriage may be celebrated within the Mass of the day, one reading from the ritual may be substituted, and the nuptial blessing is used a funeral Mass is permitted on Monday through Saturday only.

NOVEMBER 2020

During November we remember our beloved brothers and sisters who have gone before us in faith. A book might be made available in some convenient location in which the faithful could inscribe the names of their beloved dead who would be remembered in prayer during this month. Since through Baptism those who died in Christ now live in Christ, it would be appropriate to place the book near the baptismal font.

Comments: From 1891 to 1915, Bishop Scanlan “consecrated” parish churches. The term “dedicated” was not generally used with the exception of the Cathedral of the Madeleine. Some confusion exists between the dates of construction and priest assignments and parish dedications. An example of this is Immaculate Conception parish in Copperton, which is said to have been dedicated by Bishop Duane H. Hunt on October 30, 1949. Construction of the church and rectory was not completed until 1958. Holy Rosary Church was consecrate (dedicated) by Bishop Scanlan on October 30, 1910. The last Mass celebrated in Holy Rosary Church was in 1958 when the parish seat was moved to Copperton. It appears that moving the parish seat to a new church site did not always include a dedication.

LITURGICAL DEFINITIONS

Solemnity - the highest-ranking feast. These commemorate an event in the life of Jesus, Mary or the Apostles central to the Christian faith. The celebration of Mass on a Solemnity includes proper readings, the singing of the Gloria and the recitation of the creed.

Feast - the rank of secondary liturgical days including lesser events in the life of Jesus, Mary or an Apostle (theologically speaking) or for major saints.
Memorial - the commemoration of a saint of lesser importance. Many memorials are optional or only observed in specific dioceses, regions or nations.

Seasonal Weekday - a weekday in a "strong" liturgical season (Advent, Christmas Season, Lent, and Easter Season) on which no solemnity, feast, or memorial is observed.

Holy days of obligation - days on which, as canon 1247 of the Code of Canon Law states: “On Sundays and other holy days of obligation, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Mass.”

Abrogated - dispensed from the obligation, i.e. holy day of obligation is abrogated.

Liturgical Vestments: The Church's liturgical norms prescribe specific vestment colors for various celebrations for two purposes. First, the colors highlight the particular liturgical season and the journey through these seasons.
