● Chants of the Misal Romano

The FDLC in conjunction with OCP have made available the Chants for the Misal Romano, tercera edición. They are still in the process of recording and batches are being uploaded at least twice a month. The link for the chants they have recorded so far is <https://www.ocp.org/en-us/chants-del-misal-romano-order-of-the-mass>. In addition, most of the PDFs have been posted on the USCCB website, <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/la-santa-misa/musica-para-el-misal-romano.cfm>. These texts and musical notations may be ideal for priests, deacons, cantors, and others who wish to rehearse the chants.

● Social Action Summer Institute

The national Roundtable Association of Catholic Diocese Social Action Directors is holding its annual Social Action Summer Institute in Salt Lake City July 25-28, and all Utah Catholics are invited! SASI offers first time attendees grounding in Catholic social teaching, Biblical theology and the spirituality of social justice. SASI is planned jointly with the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, Catholic Relief Services and Catholic Charities USA. The 2019 conference will focus on giving voice and fostering systemic change for people experiencing homelessness or statelessness, while we also help each other feel at home again in our church. Social justice ministry is dedicated to serving individuals on the margins of society. Housing affordability, health care access, racial injustice serve as some of the many barriers to resolving homelessness. For immigrants and refugees, increasingly unwelcoming policies and attitudes are leaving many with no place to call home. Meanwhile, Catholics are struggling with continuing revelations about the sexual abuse crisis. SASI 2019 will look at these critical issues as we each seek to live our faith and shelter the homeless. Please share the flyer and look for the full schedule and registration information this April.
