LECTIONARY FOR MASS

Sunday Cycle	Year C	November 28, 2021 to November 20, 2022
Weekday Cycle	Cycle II	January 10, 2022 to March 1, 2022 June 6, 2022 to November 26, 2022
Sunday Cycle	Year A	November 27, 2022 to November 20, 2023

The readings from the weekday cycle generally are to be used even on days on which a Memorial or Optional Memorial of a Saint occurs. The exceptions to this rule are the Memorials or Optional Memorials which have “proper readings” (usually only the Gospel) assigned to them in the Lectionary for Mass and which must be used on those days. Substitutions from the Commons or Proper of Saints may be made for the other readings suggested for those Memorials or Optional Memorials. The Priest Celebrant, however, should not omit “too often or without sufficient cause the readings assigned for each day in the weekday Lectionary” (Introduction to the Lectionary for Mass, no. 83).

NOTES FOR THE YEAR OF GRACE 2022

1. The 2022 liturgical year begins on the First Sunday of Advent, November 28, 2021. During the year 2022:
  - a. Sunday, December 12, 2021, is the Third Sunday of Advent, and the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe is omitted this year. Our Lady of Guadalupe may be appropriately honored in the Homily, Universal Prayer, and hymns during the Sunday liturgy. If pastoral advantage calls for it (cf. GIRM, no. 376), a Votive Mass of Our Lady of Guadalupe may be celebrated on a weekday before or after December 12, with the proper readings and prayers.
  - b. Saturday, January 1, 2022, is the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God, and Monday August 15, 2022 is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This year, the obligation to attend Mass on these dates is abrogated, in accord with the complementary norm to canon 1246 §2 confirmed for the dioceses of the United States of America.
  - c. Thursday, May 26 is the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord in the ecclesiastical provinces of Boston, Hartford, New York, Newark, Omaha, and Philadelphia, while all other ecclesiastical provinces of the United States of America have transferred this Solemnity to the following Sunday, May 29. In those archdioceses and dioceses, Thursday, May 26 is observed as the Memorial of Saint Philip Neri, Priest.
  - d. Friday, June 24 is the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, and at the direction of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, the Solemnity of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist is transferred this year to Thursday, June 23. However, where Saint John the Baptist is the patron of a nation, diocese, city, or religious community, the Solemnity of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist is instead celebrated on Friday, June 24, and the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is transferred to Thursday, June 23.
  - e. Since a Sunday does not occur between December 25 and January 1, 2023, the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph is celebrated on Friday, December 30 with only one reading before the Gospel.
2. “On Saturdays in Ordinary Time when no Obligatory Memorial occurs, an Optional Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary may be celebrated” (Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and the Calendar, no. 15). This is indicated in the Calendar by “BVM.” The readings and prayers may be selected from the Common of the Blessed Virgin Mary or Votive Masses of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the Roman Missal, or the Collection of Masses of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
3. The Anniversary of the Dedication of a Parish Church is a proper solemnity for the parish. See Appendix IV on page 25 for a listing of dedication dates.

4. The Anniversary of the Rededication of the Cathedral Church of the Madeleine, February 21, is celebrated as a solemnity in the cathedral church and as a feast throughout the diocese.

5. Ritual Masses – Ritual Masses are connected to the celebration of Sacraments or Sacramentals. They may not be celebrated on the Sundays of Advent, Lent, and Easter, on solemnities, on the days within the Octave of Easter, on All Souls Day (Commemoration of the Faithful Departed), on Ash Wednesday, and during Holy Week and furthermore due regard is to be had for the norms set out in the ritual books or in the Masses themselves (GIRM-General Instruction of the Roman Missal 372).

10 Sunday	Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord (Holy Week begins)	red

Blessing and Distribution of Palms – Three forms are offered for the beginning of the liturgy on this day: the procession, the solemn entrance, and the simple entrance. Masses beginning with either the solemn entrance or the procession omit the Act of Penitence. The Sign of the Cross and Greeting begin the celebration of the Liturgy. While the text of the Gospel for the Procession is included in the Missal, the Book of Gospels should be used. The invitation to the Procession “Let us go forth in peace” has a proper response “In the name of Christ, Amen.” The Passion proclaimed on this day is essential to the liturgy and cannot be omitted. It may be proclaimed (either read or chanted) using multiple readers. Lay persons are allowed to do any of the parts. A solemn blessing for the Passion of the Lord is also found in the blessings provided at the end of the “Order of Mass.” This blessing may also be used on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of Holy Week.

Sacred Paschal Triduum (Late afternoon April 14, 2022 – Evening Prayer, May 17, 2022)

Thursday – Sunday, April 14 – April 17: Ritual Masses are not permitted; a funeral Mass is not permitted, the sacraments are not celebrated except penance, anointing of the sick and sacrament of initiation within the Masses of Easter; Holy Communion may be brought to the sick during the Triduum except on Holy Saturday – on Holy Saturday Holy Communion may be given only as viaticum. Since the only Mass allowed on Holy Thursday is the Evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper, it might be beneficial to celebrate Morning Prayer from the Liturgy of the Hours at the regularly scheduled time for morning Mass.

14	Evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper (Holy Thursday)	white
	The Mass of the Lord’s Supper is not to begin before 4:00 pm. Lent ends before Evening Prayer is celebrated. The Easter triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper. Evening prayer on Holy Thursday is celebrated only by those not participating in the evening Mass. The Mass of the Lord’s Supper is the principal Liturgy of the day and the only Mass to be celebrated.

- 15 Friday of the Passion of the Lord (Good Friday) red
The Liturgy of the Hours, particularly Morning Prayer, is strongly encouraged to be celebrated with the community. The celebration of the Lord's Passion, the principal celebration of this day, should take place about 3:00 pm. If pastoral need dictates, there may be another celebration later in the day, particularly if it is necessary to repeat in a different language.
- 16 The Easter Vigil (Holy Saturday) white
Morning: Preparation Rites for the Elect

The Most Reverend Oscar A. Solis, Bishop of Salt Lake City, has determined that the Easter Vigil may not begin earlier than one hour after Sunset in the Diocese of Salt Lake City. If there is a pastoral need to start earlier, please contact Msgr. Bircumshaw, Vicar General at the Diocese.

SEASON OF EASTER
 (April 17, 2022 – June 6, 2022)

- 17 Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord white

The fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost are celebrated in joyful exultation as one feast day, or better, as one "great Sunday." The first eight days of the Easter Season make up the Octave of Easter and are celebrated as Solemnities of the Lord (CB. 371, 373). The Easter Sequence is to be sung on Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord (GIRM #64). On Easter Sunday, the tradition in the U.S. has been to replace the Creed with the Renewal of Baptismal Promises, followed by sprinkling with blessed water. The text may be found in the Roman Missal texts for the Easter Vigil.

Ritual Masses are not permitted; however, marriage may be celebrated within the Mass of the day, one reading from the ritual may be substituted, and the nuptial blessing is used. A funeral Mass is permitted on Monday through Saturday only.

A Rite of Sprinkling may appropriately replace the Penitential Act at the beginning of Mass on all Sundays during the Easter Season. At the conclusion of the sprinkling rite the Priest says “May almighty God cleanse us of our sins, and through the celebration of this Eucharist make us worthy to share at the table of his Kingdom. Amen.” (Roman Missal, App. II). The Gloria follows and should not be combined with or sung during the sprinkling rite as they are two distinct parts of the Introductory Rites.

NOVEMBER 2022

During November we remember our beloved brothers and sisters who have gone before us in faith. Since through Baptism those who died in Christ now live in Christ, it would be appropriate to place a book near the baptismal font or other location in which the faithful could inscribe the names of their beloved dead who would be remembered in prayer during this month.

ORDER OF CELEBRATING MATRIMONY

1. The Order of Celebrating Matrimony (OCM), English translation of the 2nd typical edition, for use in the dioceses of the United States (published 2016) is the ritual text to be used. No other English edition of the Order of Celebrating Matrimony may be used in the dioceses of the United States of America. [Decree of Publication, February 2, 2016]
2. A couple may get married on most days of the Liturgical Year, using the texts from Ritual Mass V: “For the Celebration of Marriage.” On our most solemn liturgical days, when the Sacrament of Matrimony is celebrated within Mass, there are restrictions on the choice of texts. On those days the Mass of the Day is used with its own readings, with the inclusion of the Nuptial Blessings and, if appropriate, the formula for the final blessing (OCM 34).

These solemn days are ranked as “1 through 4” in the “Table of Liturgical Days According to Their Order of Precedence” (Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and the General Roman Calendar, 59). They are:

1. Easter Triduum of the Lord’s Passion and Resurrection
  2. Christmas, Epiphany, Ascension, and Pentecost
Sundays of Advent, Lent, and the Easter Season
Ash Wednesday
Weekdays of Holy Week (Monday to Thursday, inclusive)
Days within the Octave of Easter
  3. Solemnities of the Lord, the Blessed Virgin Mary and Saints listed in the General Calendar
The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls)
  4. The solemnity of the principal Patron of the place
The solemnity of the dedication of one’s own church
The solemnity of the title of one’s own church [e.g., Sacred Heart]
The solemnity of the title, founder, or patron of a religious order
3. If the Marriage is celebrated on a day having a penitential character, especially during Lent, the couple should be guided on how to take into account the special nature of that day. “The celebration of Marriage on Friday of the Passion of the Lord and Holy Saturday is to be avoided altogether” (OCM 32).
  4. However, marriages which are celebrated outside of Mass (Rite II and Rite III) have fewer restrictions. While the Sacred Triduum still is to be avoided, the couple may get married on most days of the liturgical year. The choice of readings may be drawn from the Order of Celebrating Matrimony (see OCM, Chapter IV or Lectionary for Mass, 801-805).

ORDER OF CHRISTIAN FUNERALS

1. The Order of Christian Funerals (OCF), English translation for use in the dioceses of the United States (published 2002) is the ritual text to be used. No other English edition of the Order of Christian Funerals may be used in the dioceses of the United States of America. [Decree of Publication, August 15, 1969]
2. Funeral Masses are not permitted during the Easter triduum, on solemnities, and on the Sundays of Advent, Lent, and the Easter Season. In such cases where the Funeral Mass is not permitted the Funeral Liturgy outside of Mass may be used (OCM 6).

Comments:

From 1891 to 1915, Bishop Scanlan “consecrated” parish churches. The term “dedicated” was not generally used with the exception of the Cathedral of the Madeleine. Some confusion exists between the dates of construction and priest assignments and parish dedications. An example of this is Immaculate Conception parish in Copperton, which is said to have been dedicated by Bishop Duane H. Hunt on October 30, 1949. Construction of the church and rectory was not completed until 1958. Holy Rosary Church was consecrate (dedicated) by Bishop Scanlan on October 30, 1910. The last Mass celebrated in Holy Rosary Church was in 1958 when the parish seat was moved to Copperton. It appears that moving the parish seat to a new church site did not always include a dedication.
