READING

Romans 10:9-15

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved.

For the scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all, enriching all who call upon him. For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

But how can they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how can they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone to preach? And how can people preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring the good news!"

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

REFLECTION ON READING (Optional)

CANTICLE OF ZECHARIAH
(May be recited or sung)

Luke 1:68-79

Presider      Let us serve the Lord in holiness all the days of our life.

All            Let us serve the Lord in holiness all the days of our life.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel;
he has come to his people and set them free.
He has raised up for us a mighty savior,
Born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old
that he would save us from our enemies,
from the hands of all who hate us.

He promised to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham:
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
free to worship him without fear,
holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High;
for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,
to give his people knowledge of salvation
by forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
to shine on those who dwell in darkness
and the shadow of death,
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son,
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and will be for ever. Amen.

All Let us serve the Lord in holiness all the days of our life.

READING

Reader 1        From Pope Francis in The Joy of the Gospel: If indeed “the just ordering of society and of the state is a central responsibility of politics, the Church, cannot and must not remain on the sidelines in the fight for justice.” (Evangelii Gaudium, #183, quoting Pope Benedict XVI, Deus Caritas Est, #28).

Reader 2        From Pope Benedict XVI in God is Love: The mission of the lay faithful is therefore to configure social life correctly, respecting its legitimate autonomy and cooperating with other citizens according to their respective competences and fulfilling their own responsibility (Deus Caritas Est, #29).

- Reader 1 From the Catechism of the Catholic Church: It is necessary that all participate, each according to his position and role, in promoting the common good. This obligation is inherent in the dignity of the human person (#1913).
- Reader 2 From the words of Christ himself when he proclaims: “You are the salt of the earth. . . You are the light of the world. . . your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father” (Matthew 5: 13, 14, 16).

INTERCESSIONS

Presider The path to seeing with the eyes of the heart is discovered in the journey of discipleship. It is not an easy journey but an ongoing effort to live the gospel with integrity. We pray, O God, that you would inspire us and equip us to respond to your call to live out our faith in your world.

Reader That we might take seriously our call, working together to remake those flawed systems and structures in which injustice is found. We pray:

All Father of all, inspire us to act according to your will.

Reader That we might be leaven, healing what is broken and sanctifying the world. We pray:

All Christ our brother, make us leaven in the world.

Reader That we might respond to our own human dignity and the dignity found in all other persons by participating in public life in order to protect all life and promote the common good. We pray:

All Spirit of life, move us to participate in promoting the common good.

Reader That we might work to feed the hungry, welcome the stranger and clothe the naked in our local, national and global communities. We pray:

All Triune God, make us salt and light in the world.
