Presenter Biography:

A native of New Hampshire, Dr. Fussell has enjoyed a successful career as an educator and leader in both public and Catholic schools. Prior to joining the Education Department faculty at Creighton, Dr. Fussell was the Associate Superintendent of Schools for the Diocese of Manchester (NH), where he led innovative efforts to improve diocesan curricula, leadership development, teacher and principal evaluation, and Catholic school identity in service to 26 schools and nearly 6000 Catholic school students in the State of New Hampshire.

Currently, Dr. Fussell is a core faculty member in Creighton's innovative educational leadership programs. Dr. Fussell teaches courses for aspiring Catholic school leaders, and he directs the Graduate Certificate in Catholic School Leadership. Outside of the classroom, Dr. Fussell serves as a volunteer review board member for the Nebraska Foster Care Review Office and engages in other service work in the greater Omaha community.

A passionate advocate for Catholic education, Dr. Fussell is honored to have a national voice regarding important topics such as lay Catholic educator faith formation, Catholic school identity, and Catholic school leadership development.
